MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE.
Names of Mortgagors—Samuel Leech and Nancy Leech, his wife.
Name of Mortgagee—Jonathan Harshman and his wife, Rebecca.
Date of Mortgage—Fourth day of October, A. D. 1859.
When Recorded—October 4th, A. D. 1859, at 2½ o'clock p. m.
Where recorded—in the office of the Register of Deeds for Ramsey county, Minnesota.
Description of Premises—Lots numbered nine, (9) in block No. three, (3) in Leech's addition to St. Paul, in said county of Ramsey. Also lots four, five and six, (4, 5, and 6) in Leech's subdivision of north west quarter of block four, (4) in Leech's addition to lot to the town (now city) of St. Paul in said county of Ramsey aforesaid, and all situated in Ramsey county, Minnesota.

Amount claimed to be due on said mortgage: $2100 dollars. Said heirs—ten hundred ninety and 32-100 dollars. Said heirs have been in the condition of the above described mortgage, by the said mortgagee, to the said mortgagees to pay the sum of money thereby secured, and no proceedings have been instituted to recover the sum claimed due thereon, nor any part of the sum claimed due thereon, and the said mortgagee, by virtue of the power of sale therein contained, and by virtue thereof, and of the statute, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of said premises at public vendue, to the highest bidder, at the front Court House in the city of St. Paul in said State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of January, A. D. 1892, to satisfy the amount then due on said mortgage, together with the expenses allowed by law. Dated December 4th, 1891.

For the accommodation of the citizens of St. Paul,

In view of the probable withdrawal of Secretary Welles from the Cabinet. (Mr. Banks, the telegraph has intimated, will be his successor,) the following summary of the recent report of the Senate Committee will be interesting to our readers. The history of the purchase of vessels for the Government by Mr. George D. Morgan—brother-in-law of Secretary Welles—Mr. Morgan receiving a commission of two and a half per cent, nominally paid by the seller, is known to our readers :

The committee do not attach much weight to the certificate of Samuel L. Mitchell and several other gentlemen, who have given to the Secretary of the Navy a certificate that these vessels have been purchased "at lower prices than have usually been paid by the Government," especially as it appears from the report of the Secretary of the Navy that more than four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) of the amount disbursed by Mr. Morgan was paid to the firm of S. L. Mitchell & Son.

GEN. FREMONT.
A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune of the 25th, says:
"I saw the General to day, looking as bright and earnest as when I saw him here seven years ago—saying a slight sprinkling of gray in the hair and beard. His interest in the cause is undiminished—he bates not one jot of heart or hope. He stands ready for the word of command, which will not be long in coming. The President has never spoken of Fremont, otherwise than in the kindest manner."

CONGRESS AND NEWSPAPERS.—The Committee of Ways and Means, in the House, has, it is stated, determined not to put a stamp duty on newspapers, but to tax them accordingly to their circulation, to be determined by the affidavit of the publisher. Anything that is reasonable, Messrs. Legislators. The Press does not wish to shirk the burdens of the war; it only asks that the great interest of Popular Intelligence, of which it is the champion, shall not be detrimented.

It looked marvellous to see poor negro women with children in their arms, fleeing from their wretched homes, while the men with one or two bundles on their shoulder ers, carried all they had in the world.
Among these things fugitives to inform a that he was not able to keep up with the rest.

The man said: "Grandpa, where do you live?"

"Juss over thar Massa, a Miss White's."

"How many children has your wife raised?"
 "Sixteen, Massa."
 "Where are they?"
 "Sold down South."
 "Did it make you feel bad to have your children sold and taken South?"
 At this juncture the old lady looked up, and with great sadness said, "Ah, Massa, it has broke my heart."
 Poor old oppressed creatures, thought I, if there be no reward for suffering innocence beyond this life, thy lot is indeed a hopeless one.

The men stood around gazing upon the scene before them in mute astonishment, and it was not until the negro had

She also saved the lives of Mr. Browne, my Chaplain, and Lieutenant Gilliland, by her timely and assiduous attention. Miss Chase is a sort of Florence Nightingale, who has devoted the energies of a life that was darkened in its early days by a great sorrow, to the nursing of sick soldiers in the army of the North; and in spite of every misrepresentation and the thousand trials that beset her dangerous position, she has steadily preserved against the obstacles that attempted to —A New Yorker having become suddenly rich, built a large, fine house on Fifth avenue, hired a number of negro servants, and invited some country cousins to come and see him. They went, but did not know what to make of the great number of servants, when their relative had no family but himself and wife. On their return home, they were asked "how their city relative was getting along." "Well," said they, "he is living in fine style on Fifth avenue, keeping a negro boarding house."

A GOOD MAN.—We announce the death of Dr. Dwight, of a rail road accident on the Troy and Road, on Saturday: Dr. was one of the oldest and most of our Missionaries. He went to Europe in 1832, where, with the exception of a brief visit home, he continued within a few months of our Missionaries in the Orient. Perhaps the best known if not the most loved and honored. He was a devoted, an ardent patriot and a blameless life.—Albany Evening

 What points the rebel cannon?
 What sets the roaring rebel's heel
 On the old state's spangled pennon?
 What breaks the ocean

 What whets the knife

 My Mary from my soul was torn.
 Mary! dear departed shade,
 Where is thy place of blissful rest?
 Eest thou thy lover, lowly laid?
 Clear'st thou the groans that rend his breast?
 Hath sacred hour can I forget?
 Can I forget the hallowed grove,
 Where, by the winding Ayr we met,

Description of mortgaged premises.—Lot numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834,

THE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

The foreign news is of interest. The recent tendency and purpose is to recognize the de facto government of the rebels if we fail to accomplish, speedily, decisive results in reducing the rebellion.

NEWS ITEMS.

The Davenport Gazette keeps a sort of daily quotation of the chances of Rock Island for the United States Army, each day by "private advices" from Washington. It now stands at about 95 per cent.

The question which seems most to excite the attention of the Southern papers, is that of free enlistment, as the time of their soldiers will expire in the spring.

Another mammoth expedition is reported to be on foot at Cairo. The force comprising this movement will be greater than that of the late reconnaissance.

Indignation of the strongest character is gathering in the hearts of the people of Kansas, from the fact that the army under Major General Halleck is being used in catching fugitive slaves and restoring them to their masters.

Mr. Rice in the Senate, on the 30th, offered a joint resolution that the Secretary of War be authorized to procure from officers and soldiers, now prisoners in the so-called Confederate States, information for families.

The bulk of mankind will prefer the risk of disease to the certainty of cold. It has been this feeling, which populated the unhealthy regions of the Southwest, and which in all ages has sent the hardy children of the North to the regions of the orange and myrtle, willing to encounter debilitation of body, and demoralization of mind, rather than longer endure the sharp but strengthening blasts of their native land.

This natural prejudice can be met only by addressing the reason of mankind. Those Eastern citizens who contemplate emigration, must learn to deduct from their judgment of our State all that is unjust—they must learn to balance our advantages against our disadvantages—they must learn that it is to their interest to come among us.

Information like this finds its way downward from the clearer intellects to the masses of men. If you have once convinced those who think for themselves, it is but a question of time to gain all the others. It is an old comparison that the dawning light strikes the mountain tops long before it reaches the valleys.

We are indeed fortunate in possessing at this time a gentleman so eminently fitted as our present Commissioner of Statistics, for the important task which the State requires at his hands. We doubt if in the entire Northwest, or perhaps the entire Union, there can be found united in any one individual his many necessary qualifications for the post.

Mr. Wheeler, of Nova Scotia, does nothing of the kind. Mr. Statesman, that vile Bienensoe sets down the lux of Nicolet county at 122 mills—being, we believe, the least taxed county in the State—and we so copied it from his report, putting it in the lowest place in the column, when it became transformed to 224 by a very obvious typographical blunder for which Nova Scotia is not responsible.

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF STATISTICS.

We are glad to welcome the Second Annual Report of the Commissioner of Statistics. It is for the years 1860 and 1861, and contains a large fund of statistical information, chiefly derived from the census of 1860, and its dissemination cannot but be of the very greatest advantage to Minnesota.

It must never be forgotten that as a frontier State our future welfare is mainly dependent upon attracting to our borders the emigration from other localities. It is true that by the natural increase of the population already here, we shall possess a slow and steady growth, but one holding no proportion whatever to the increase which a new flood of emigration would give us.

That is to say, by the natural increase of our population by births, as shown by the Commissioner of Statistics, and without any additions from abroad, we shall have, in 1870, a population of 317,000. But if we are favored in the next ten years with a rate of emigration equal to that of which Iowa and Wisconsin have had in the past, we shall possess in 1870 a population of 610,000; and if by any means our rate of growth can be made equal to the one half of that which we have had during the last ten years, we shall have in 1870 a population of over a million.

Nor will this difference in the increase of population as between the two modes of growth at all fairly represent the difference in the increase of wealth—in other words, the 100,000 gained in ten years by the natural growth of the population will add nothing to the property or resources of the State; while the 400,000 or 800,000 brought in during the same period by emigration, will increase vastly the wealth as well as the labor power of the people.

We have thus—according to the use we may make of our means of attracting emigration—a margin of possible growth before us ranging, in the next ten years, from 100,000 to 800,000; and we have therefore every inducement to put forward our utmost efforts to encourage emigration. It is indeed a poor, blind policy to fall back upon the belief that certain great natural forces will work out our success, for it must be remembered that the advance of population in the United States has been heretofore always westwardly. Weak now to deflect it northwardly. And here we are at once met with the popular prejudice against our climate.

The bulk of mankind will prefer the risk of disease to the certainty of cold. It has been this feeling, which populated the unhealthy regions of the Southwest, and which in all ages has sent the hardy children of the North to the regions of the orange and myrtle, willing to encounter debilitation of body, and demoralization of mind, rather than longer endure the sharp but strengthening blasts of their native land.

This natural prejudice can be met only by addressing the reason of mankind. Those Eastern citizens who contemplate emigration, must learn to deduct from their judgment of our State all that is unjust—they must learn to balance our advantages against our disadvantages—they must learn that it is to their interest to come among us.

Information like this finds its way downward from the clearer intellects to the masses of men. If you have once convinced those who think for themselves, it is but a question of time to gain all the others. It is an old comparison that the dawning light strikes the mountain tops long before it reaches the valleys.

We are indeed fortunate in possessing at this time a gentleman so eminently fitted as our present Commissioner of Statistics, for the important task which the State requires at his hands. We doubt if in the entire Northwest, or perhaps the entire Union, there can be found united in any one individual his many necessary qualifications for the post.

Mr. Wheeler, of Nova Scotia, does nothing of the kind. Mr. Statesman, that vile Bienensoe sets down the lux of Nicolet county at 122 mills—being, we believe, the least taxed county in the State—and we so copied it from his report, putting it in the lowest place in the column, when it became transformed to 224 by a very obvious typographical blunder for which Nova Scotia is not responsible.

district yet to be occupied. That is to say, emigration has reached its limit of direct western advance; to seek new regions it must bend northwardly; it must enter Minnesota; or it must pass over and build up new communities beyond and tributary to Minnesota.

In this great fact lies the key note of our future. It required a broad mind to conceive it; persevering industry to develop it; educated skill to clearly present it; and this we have in Mr. Wheeler's Report.

When once we have forced home upon the public mind of the country the fact that Minnesota is the gateway between the present and the future; between the great results already attained and that immense field of development where, alone, of the North American continent, a theatre remains wherein these results can be repeated, we have at once fixed the destiny of our State. The delusions of Kansas or Nebraska, or even of Western Iowa, will no longer divert emigration from our midst. We become the sole avenue for the accumulated emigration of the continent.

But while Mr. Wheeler's work thus addresses itself to the great natural features upon which our future must depend, and to the broadest conceptions of the human mind, it does not, at the same time, neglect those plain and irrefutable facts which prove even to the humblest intellect, the certain advantages of our State.

Take, for instance, this table, found on page 57, showing in what manner the wheat yield of Minnesota compares with that of Ohio and Iowa:

	1845	1850	1855	1860
Min. av'g y'd per a.	14.2	7.4	19.25	20.0
Iowa, " " "	12.2	10.4	7.3
Ohio, " " "	12.2	10.4	7.3

Or take this other table, showing how the highest yield of Minnesota compares with the highest yields ever known in other States:

	Bush. per acre.
Minnesota, 1860, " "	22.0
Ohio, 1860, " "	17.8
Michigan, 1860, " "	15.0
Massachusetts, 1849, " "	10.0

It is hard for even the prejudiced mind to resist conviction before such stubborn facts. The rapid advance of wheat culture in our State is shown by this table on page 56:

	Area.	Bush. harvested.	Av'g y'd.
1850, " "	2,274,412	32,741,200	14.4
1860, " "	2,211,215	51,014,292	23.0

We doubt if in the whole history of the world such another instance of rapid growth can be found, knowing, as we do, that only since 1858 our State has been self-supporting. We are perfectly astonished to find on page 56, that in 1860, two years after the war, the wheat product of Minnesota was five times that of all New England in 1850!

Again we are told that our wheat product in 1860 "was fifty per cent. more than the wheat product of Iowa in 1850, with a population three times as great."

What can better convince the world that Minnesota is pre-eminently the "Land of Plenty," than this table, found on page 55 of Mr. Wheeler's work?

	No. bush.	No. bush to 1 per acre.
Ohio, av'g '58	112,883,870	49.0
New York, " "	78,890,110	42.0
Austria Galicia, " "	67,409,145	14.0
Minnesota, 1860, " "	14,898,217	14.0

Our figures go further? We here find that the number of bushels to each person in Minnesota is seven times that of New York, and about three times that of Ohio!

In ten minutes we had left our camp and were marching towards the enemy, firing left by the 5th Ohio, and on their right by the well-directed fire driven from behind their hiding places—gave way, leaving a large number of dead and wounded.

As soon as the 9th Ohio came up and had taken its position on our right, we continued the march, and after proceeding about half a mile came upon the enemy, who were posted behind a fence along the road, beyond which was an open field broken by ravines. The enemy opening upon us a galling fire, fought desperately, and a hand to hand fight ensued which lasted about thirty minutes.

The enemy met with so warm a reception in front, and afterward being flanked on their left by the 5th Ohio, and on their right by a portion of our left, who had by their well-directed fire driven them from behind their hiding places—gave way, leaving a large number of dead and wounded.

I am well satisfied with the conduct of my entire command during the severe and close engagement which they took part. When all behaved so well I have no desire to make individual distinctions.

Very respectfully, your most obedient servant, H. P. VAN CLEVE.

THE WEEKLY PRESS.

Is issued this morning. It contains several very interesting letters from officers of the Second Regiment, written immediately after the battle of the 19th, giving a full and complete history of the conflict. In it also will be found full reports of the proceedings of both branches of our State Legislature; all of the important news of the week received by telegraph, and a large amount of carefully selected miscellaneous matter.

Trophies from the Battle Field.

ARRIVAL OF STATE TREASURER SCHEFFER.

Hon. Charles Scheffer, our State Treasurer, arrived here last evening after a two months' tour through the camps of the Minnesota Regiments in Maryland and Kentucky, on business as Allotment Agent. It was Mr. Scheffer's fortune, in the discharge of his duties in this capacity, to be with the Second Regiment upon the day when it took so creditable and glorious a part in routing Zollicoffer's forces on the banks of the Cumberland.

Upon the arrival of the La Crosse stage the International last evening, Mr. Scheffer had difficulty to make his way to the office of the hotel, so anxious was the crowd to greet him and see the trophies which it was understood he had brought with him from the victorious field. All the evening the halls, parlors and offices of the hotel were crowded with men anxious to see these trophies and get a chance to exchange a word or two with the State Treasurer.

We give an imperfect inventory of the precious property which Mr. Scheffer brings from "Old Kentucky":

1. Sword worn by Col. Battle Peyton, Jr., taken from his dead body by M. C. Tuttle, 1st Lieut. Company D, Second Regiment Minnesota Volunteers. The sword was undoubtedly an heirloom of the Peyton family, and as the inscription on the scabbard shows, was presented to his father when that distinguished gentleman assumed command of the Fifth Regiment Louisiana Volunteers at the beginning of the Mexican war. It is a regulation sword of Ames' manufacture, Springfield, Massachusetts.
2. Small specimen of the "Stars and Bars"—a company flag, four by five feet in size, taken also by a member of company D, and borne by Captain Western to be deposited as a State trophy.
3. A rebel officer's coat, of fine Kentucky jeans, considerably worn.
4. A pair of "sneak pants," of coarse mixed cloth, the article known at the court as "sneak pants."
5. Sheath knife of the kind carried by the "Mississippi Tigers"—blade about ten inches long. (Mr. S. says he saw others of much more extensive dimensions.)
6. Double barrel shot gun, picked up on the field after the rebels left, by Dr. Tollman, Assistant Surgeon of the Regiment.
7. Commission of M. M. Henkle, as Quartermaster, signed by J. P. Benjamin, Confederate Secretary of War.
8. Three volumes, comprising Memoirs of S. S. Prentiss in two volumes, and the other the theological works of Tom. Paine.
9. A specimen of seceder's letters, rather indigestible.
10. Epistolary literature, comprising love letters, business letters, and one "cussing" letter, wherein the writer signifies he would like to have pay for some property taken by Zollicoffer's army.

Mr. Scheffer left the camp of the Second on Saturday week. The regiment was then camped on the Cumberland, five miles beyond Somerset, which he had advanced after returning to Somerset after the battle. He confirms all we have heard of the gallant bearing of the officers and men in the battle. He entered Zollicoffer's camp about three hours after our troops had taken possession of it, at which time almost everything had been "cleaned out" by our soldiers. About three hundred officers' trunks and private baggage was opened in the camp, containing all their valuables. In the haste of their flight, watches and money were left lying about on tables and on the ground. Our boys had a rich harvest of booty, and they were very properly allowed to go in and help themselves.

The Regimental flag of the 15th Mississippi—the "Tiger"—which was captured by our Regiment, Mr. Scheffer could not bring with him, but it is coming on by express.

Before the battle Mr. Scheffer got through with his allotment rolls in all the Companies of the Second. The allotment is about double that of any other Minnesota Regiment. Men that thus remember their families at home, cannot be other than true and brave soldiers.

Mrs. SWISHERM BEFORE THE SENATE.—In accordance with her request, this lady yesterday engaged the attention of the Senate and a crowded audience of ladies and gentlemen for the space of half an hour.

Mrs. S. asks legislation to protect married women in the sole right of one-half the property of the family, and to give the wife the right to make independent contracts as well as the husband. She would also in cases of separation, give the wife the care of the minor children, unless it be proven she is morally or physically unfitted for such a responsibility.

She read a well prepared bill of four sections embodying these principles, and enforced the several points with strong and lucid arguments. She was listened to with marked attention; and whatever may have been the opinions of her auditors in regard to the principles and policy of her measure, all will certainly give her credit for earnest sincerity and candor.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special to Herald.]—Yesterday afternoon another skirmish occurred near the banks of the Occoquan. It was reported in the morning that a body of rebels was at Pohick Church. Capt. Lowing of the 3d Michigan regiment, then on picket duty in front of Gen. Heintzelman's division, took 34 men under Lieutenant Brennan, from company F, and 43 men under Lieutenant Bryon from company H, and went to meet them. Arriving at Public Church no rebels were seen, the party, however, proceeded to the banks of the Occoquan, opposite the town by that name, arriving there early in the afternoon. A few unarmed men were observed drilling in the town and they gave the alarm, when a number of rebels came from the houses and fired on our men. A brief skirmish took place, four of the rebels were seen to fall and were carried off by their comrades. No injury was sustained by any of our party, except by one man who was slightly wounded by a spent ball. The enemy was about sending a large party across the Occoquan, when our men retreated to their post.

The flag of truce from rebellion covered an impudent demand. The message is said to have been from Jeff. Davis to President Lincoln, announcing that if the Federal Government permit the rebel bridge-builders to be hung under the order of Gen. Halleck, the Federal prisoners, Colonels Corcoran, Lee, Wheeler, and others, held as hostages for the safety of the pirates, shall be hung in retaliation. A Cabinet meeting was called to consider the subject, but I am requested not to announce the result, Jeff. Davis will learn it soon enough.

No answer has yet been given to the rebel flag of truce, nor has the contents of the dispatch transpired.

It is stated that the House is very closely divided on the legal tender clause of the Treasury Note bill, and that the majority of the Senate are adverse to it.

It is stated that the Government has received official dispatches from Federal officers, that the gunboat expedition is moving up the Tennessee river, flanked by infantry on shore, to attack the rebels; and great anxiety is felt to learn the result.

The assistant quartermaster of the Bureau expedition is here, chartering steamers and sailing vessels, in which to forward ordnance and commissary stores. He reports the health of the troops good, and when he left, in the Eastern State, there were about one hundred vessels in the expedition were at Hatteras Inlet.

A Cumberland correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette states that Gen. Lee is about to resign, on account of Gen. McClellan ordering him to retreat from Romney, and reprimanding him. This is doubtful.

It is of importance to the Post Office Department; to those who wish to make bids for carrying the mails for the four years ending; and to the people of the State of Minnesota, that it should be kept in mind that bids will be received at the Contract Office in Washington, not later than the 31st of March next.

Full proposals may be found published in the Pioneer & Democrat, Stillwater Messenger, Rochester City Post, St. Peter Tribune, and St. Anthony News.

Bids are invited on more than 100 routes; for near 800 miles of daily service; 1,000 tri-weekly; more than 1,000 semi-weekly; and 1,300 weekly.

It is thought that only low bids will secure an increase of service when proposals for additional facilities will be considered, and the Post Office Department confidently anticipates such a competition as will materially lessen the cost of transportation.

Chas. Nichols, Esq., Post Master at St. Paul, and other Post Masters throughout the State may be consulted as to forms, blanks, etc., by persons who desire to become contractors.

That being one of the Oldest Business Houses in the State, (the present being the eleventh year of its existence,) B. MARVIN feels confident that he need not urge its claims on the public patronage. The extent of country over which its business has spread is the best proof that its claims are not unrecog'nized. The unwavering determination - which he has left since the crisis, and in the hardest times to maintain his business and place it on a par with similar establishments in the largest cities of the West, have been so fully appreciated by the merchants of the State, that he feels bound to redouble his efforts, not only for the benefit of his business,

MARTIN LUTHER'S WEDDING RING.
Messrs. Ball, Black, & Co. of New York city, have at their store a genuine curiosity. It is the wedding ring of Martin Luther. It is in a capital state of preservation and contains Luther's name in Latin—the date of the marriage, 25th June, 1525—and a diamond ornamental part shows the coil, the ladder and the crucifix, the miter and other religious emblems. It has been repeated upon the inside, and the identity of the ring is complete. Several documents are connected with it to prove that it is genuine.

It belongs to one of the Chaplains of George Blenker's division.
